Richard 'Drew' Haber

March 10, 1952 - August 18, 1998

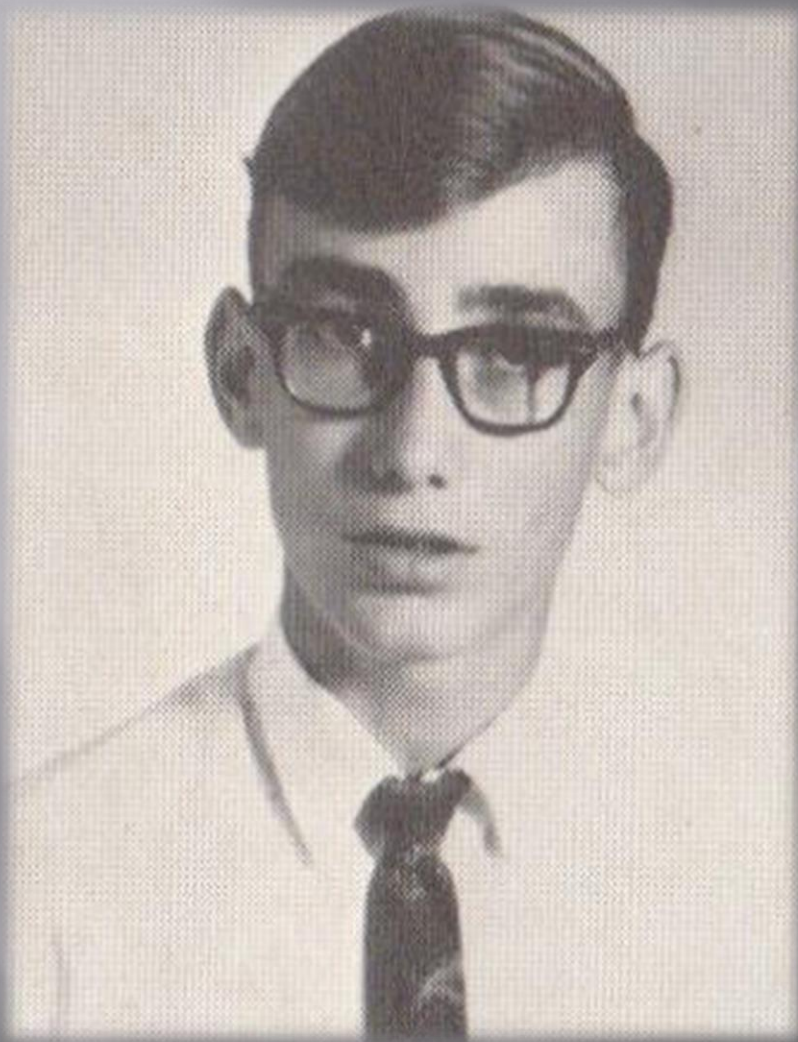

Drew was loved by all who came in contact with him. What a funny guy ... a true pin-ball wizard! He never married or had children of his own, but was survived by a loving, equally funny family, his dad John, two brothers, Michael and Billy, and his sister, Lisa. Drew was a hero! He saved a drowning victim (while skipping school) by diving from the Pensacola Bay Bridge when a vehicle went off the bridge. Ironically, he suffered a heart attack and drowned in a pool. He is missed greatly and will always be fondly remembered.

Carla Y. Hollis

1952- 6/21/2000

Carla married Ronnie Enfinger and had a daughter Angelea D'Nell Enfinger Kronlage who is now an audiologist. She lives in Slidell, La. and is married with 2 beautiful children, Reed and Carley. Carla never had the pleasure of meeting her grandchildren she wanted so very badly. Carla remarried in 1984 to Jerry Eversole and traveled the world seeing many places, some of us only dream about. She was in Egypt (3 trips totaling 2 1/2 years), Turkey, Asia, Greece, South America and Mexico. They had many assignments in the US but she really enjoyed the adventure of travel. Carla never met a stranger, she had a very special gift of meeting people. What I can tell you is that she had a terrible fall from a 2nd floor hotel in Fredericksburg, VA. She lived for five days after the fall. My brother and I were fortunate enough to get there and spend time with her before her passing. She was declared brain dead at that time and the family decision was made to donate her organs so other people in need could continue to live. This was the special gift she left.
